Re: Copy of Home Occupation Regulations of the Zoning Ordinance

Before issuance of my Business License, I received and understand the regulations of operating a Home Occupation as outlined in Section 9 .4.1 (A) through (H) in the City of Hanahan Zoning Ordinance. I also understand that should I violate the Zoning Ordinance, my Business License could be revoked.

Zoning Ordinance Section 9.4.1. Home occupations.

A home occupation shall be permitted in any dwelling unit, regardless of the zoning district, provided it:

- (A) Is conducted by residents of the dwelling;
- (B) Employs a maximum of two (2) persons in addition to any residents of the dwelling;
- (C) Utilizes not more than thirty (30) percent of the total floor area of the principal building for commercial use;
- (D) Collocates with no accessory structure on the property exceeding half the gross floor area of the dwelling;
- (E) Is not visibly evident from the outside of the dwelling and produces no alteration or change in the character or exterior appearance of the principal building from that of a dwelling;
- (F) Shall not display products visible from the street;
- (G) Does not generate traffic in greater volumes than would normally be expected in a residential neighborhood; and
- (H) Provides no more than two (2) off-street parking spaces in the front yard (which shall typically occur unstacked in the driveway) with remaining required spaces to the side or rear of the primary structure.

Zoning Ordinance Section 9.4.2. Live/work.

A live/work unit is a joint residential-commercial unit that the proprietor occupies as a residence. Allowable non-residential uses and locations for live/work units are specified by zone, per Chapter 4. The live-work unit shall meet the following standards:

- (A) Residents of the dwelling operate the commercial use.
- (B) The commercial use employs a maximum of four (4) persons in addition to any residents of the dwelling.
- (C) The commercial use utilizes not more than sixty-seven (67) percent of the total floor area of the principal building.
- (D) The use may employ a portion or all of an accessory structure on the property, provided the accessory structure does not exceed half the gross floor area of the primary structure.
